

Tessa Beauchamp Foundation Scholarship 26th Street Basketball Tournament 2017

The Tessa Beauchamp scholarship is established in loving memory of Tessa Beauchamp. Tessa was a caring, compassionate, competitive and beautiful young woman with an incredible spirit and passion for life. Tessa valued family, faith, academics, athletics, and community service. Tessa also faced obstacles and adversity with courage and perseverance. Despite her personal challenges, Tessa went out of her way to make sure everyone around her felt welcome and included. Her warm smile would light up any room. Applicants may view more information about Tessa at www.tessabeauchamp.org.

Applicants must complete the application form and attempt to provide a “snapshot” of related activities and endeavors in their own lives. Applicants may also choose to provide information in the format of their choice: written response, video, or movie format. If choosing to apply electronically please ensure that your video not exceed 5 mb and ensure that you include information about which scholarship you are applying for and which high school you belong to.

Applicants can email, mail or fax their completed applications to the Scholarship committee using the contact information listed below.
